WEDNESDAY EVENING, APRIL 3.

EUBSCRIPTION TO THE EVENING EDITION

VOL. 29.....NO. 10,088

THE NEW GERRYMANDERING.

We trust the Legislature will make note of the peculiar methods employed by Mr. GERRY in his opposition to THE EVENING Wonte Children's Bill.

Every wire is being pulled to "switch off"

Mr. Gerry's Absolutism Threatened.

[From the Albany Argue.]
There must be something constitutionally weak about the present system of commitments of children, or Mr. Elbridge T. Gerry would not take so much pains to bring about the defeat of Assembly bill No. 667, which provides for the review of such commitments by a Supreme Court Judge within thirty days. Mr. Gerry has secured the Tribune and Heraid of New York as dressed to the Legislature, in which all the arguments that can be urged in opposition to the bill are set forth. Mr. Gerry begins sententionsly of the dangerous classes of New York City. How the simple review of a police magistrate's often hasty and ill-considered commitment of a child in the interest of the dangerous classes we are at aloes to understand, unless Mr. Gerr, many with the Supreme Court Judges are in league with pare.

The Supreme Court Judges are in league with pare.

The features are dainty, her pose is supreme. She is fit for a "Duchess," can govern a is a misleading and unfair statement on the part of Mr. Gerry that the bill, which seeks only to remedy such glaring injustice, is seeks only to remedy such glaring injustice, is the departure classes. It not wish to lose them. The bill providing for the review of commitments does not necessarily abrogate them, as Mr. Gerry would imply, but only subjects them to a proper revision. It is a very serious thing to separate parent and child by process of law, and surely it is not too much to ask that such a process be subjected to all reasonable supervision. The Legislature owes it to the sacred rights of parents and to the law of God that Assembly bill No. 667 shall become a law, in spite of the frantic efforts of Mr. Gerry and the vapid utterances of his two New York mouthpieces.

jority of parents cannot afford such luxuries to thef hildren as the members of the "Four Hundred," they love them none the less and do

LEWIS MORRISON IN "FAUST."

When Henry Irving produced "Faust" during his recent visit to this country it was thought that the height, the perfection of stage realism had been attained; yet Lewis Morrison, at the Grand Opera-House, Brooklyn, Monday evening, in a far less pretentions way, not only equalled, but in truth excelled Mr. Irving's production. The "Brocken" scene, made so much of by Goethe, was a positive marvel of realism; where Irving used ground steel with the effects of light, Morrison introduces a novel feature in genuine pyrotechnics. the entire stage illuminated by a shower of tion of the character of Mephisto has ever been given than this latest creation of Mr. Morrison. It is not a strictly orthodox Satan, but a correct representation of the evil influences that we see at work daily in the varied types of human nature that are met in every-day life. Mr. Morrison is happily free from mannerisms, and although the part. I might say almost invites ranting, he never for a moment loses himself or treads upon forbidden ground. The Margnerite of his daughter. Rosabel, was most acceptably enacted, as was the Paust of Charles W. Sutton. Miss Carrie Carter as Martha, was a pelled to make a little speech in which he apologized for a few minor electrical effects, which by the way, the audience had not noticed, and he concluded with the trite remark: "The elements are against us both inside and out, but we have conquered electricity before this, and depend upon it, we'll do it again to-night," And G, D, S, WORLDLINGS.

Mary Anderson is said to like shrimp salad setter than any other table delicacy. She cats a hearty breakfast ordinarily of beefsteak, eggs and other substantial viands. Assistant Postmaster-General Clarkson's family is composed of five persons-himself. Mrs. Clarkson and three sons. The eldest son is eighteen years of age and the youngest six.

Marion Crawford, the author, lives in a picturesque villa on a cliff overlooking the Bay of Naples. His home is filled with treasures gathered in years of travel. He devotes six hours a day to writing.

Suffered 30 Years with Catarrh.

Wm. R. Eiker & Son.
GENTLEMEN. Two years ago 1 was induced to take your Compound Sansaparilla. That been sofering your COMPOUND SAMSATARILLA. I had been suffering succession of carrille schoeses. I can truly say that the result of taking three bottles was far beyond my most samptime supertaining. I was not only cured of the most painful suffictions, but have since near nearly carried of the most painful suffictions, but have since near nearly carried of the most prevalent and annoying disease, Catarina, from which I had suffered for one 20 Trians, and in trying to more when I had suffered for one 20 Trians and in trying it tile or no relief, even from dector and the suffered for the suffered successions of the suffered successions and surprise the suffered successions and surprise the surprise succession of the suffered surprise successions and surprise successions and surprise successions. Send same if recommendation and same in the commendation of the co

Minnie Palmer Improving

The house surgeon of the Roosevel Hospital rated this morning that Minnie Palmer, who was shot by Willie Dutcher in her flat on West Thirty-ninth street on Bunday, is in a fair way to recovery. The ball has not yet been extracted.

NERVOURNESS IN Infants need not be feared where MORRIL'S TERTHING CORDIAL is used. Price 25c. ","

Girls of High and Low Degree Carefully Analyzed.

soc. Few to Condemn and Plenty to Praise Her.

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second-class The Country Girl Comes in for Her Share.

THE AMERICAN GIRL CONTEST.

A gold double engle is offered for the best de-bill eminently just and urged by THE EVENING WORLD upon its intrinsic merits and in a manner clean and above-board throughout?

If she plays, her music is sure to inspire,
if a fancy for acting be the craze of the age,
A "star" of the brightest she will be on the stage.

If she reads, she is thorough from the A's to If she reads, she is thorough from the A's to the Z's.

Be it poetry, literature or the latest disease. She is posted in science, in physics and style, And will argue with zeal, yet knit all the while. Impulsive by nature, in sympathy free, Her charity takes in the earth and the sea. Her religion is broad; she cannot be narrow. She knows all about "Kant," but believes most in "Farrar."

She does what she can to save her own soul. But prays all the same for The World as a whole.

A "bound," she travels the seas and the lands.

his allies in this crusade against parental rights.
and we are in receipt of a circular by him, ad-sands.

If gauche and uncultured when first she begins,
She will aim for the highest, and generally wins.

If not born a "lady," why, between you and with the statement that the bill is in the interest | In less than a jiffy she gets there, you'll see. | Her ''pa, "in the mines, may have worked at his But she il travel in Europe and have a French maid; She will dress so divinely, all mortals declare, E'en the angels in "heaven" cannot be more a loss to understand, unless Mr. Gerry means that the Supreme Court Judges are in league with With her own handsome eyes can hardly com their representatives at Albany, and if the ma- But must have her own way whether red, white

THE WORLD offers a prize of an eagle pure If we'll send it a letter and with it insure A "type" of the genuine girl of to-day. But two hundred words are all we can say. Now who in the world could ever embrace. The "American girl" in such limited space? To describe half her beauty, her learning or Would use up a Webster and take half a week. But if you will glance through my humble en-But if you will gissel.

deavor
You will find her ''perfection," a deity ever.
A goldiess supreme o'er the world she may roam
But as maid, wife or mother she's an ''idol''; Loora.

The American girl is without a rival-chockfull of sense, first in war, first in peace, first in the hearts of her countrymen. Can help her mother in the kitchen or entertain in the parlor. Neatly dressed at all times, to rich or poor alike a lady, loves candy, but to succor distress will Always Up to Mischief.

American girls are always ready for mischief and sport at some poor fellow's expense. Never falling meteors, with Mephisto as a central fig- happy unless they are breaking hearts; accept tire, directing the revels of the imps with a star- everything and give nothing; folly, roving, timed wand. I doubt if a more faithful concept romping, light-hearted girl, ready to take offense rompins, light-hearted girl, ready to take offense and as ready to forgive. With a heart as big as The Worklip's circulation and a hand as ready to help the needy. Can do almost anything in the line of outdoor sport. As for lessons why, that a something she would sconer dispense with, but always knows enough to carry her through. Can sew, darn and make anything in the line of wearing apparel and is a good cook. As a mother she is ever kind and true to the little ones and insta swilling to offer a kiss as a spanking when it be required. As a wife, loving, kind, honest, true, and tries to make home what it should be.

G. S. A.

Compels Homage.

A decidedly dangerous subject for any ratrifle too hoydenish for a woman of her mature tional being to pass other than a favorable critage. So demonstrative was the applause at the beism upon. The average run of American girls end of the third act that Mr. Morrison was com- are rough diamonds in refined setting, human, therefore full of faults, but plucky and sharp enough to make you mistake them for virtues. In the typical American girl, you are sure to find plenty of good material to mould into a brilliant, noble woman, before whose pure minded simplicity and inate goodness, man is forced to pay homage.

B. A.

Shop Girls Slaudered.

In my experience of studying the average he gair to increase in amount until now much larger than at any previous time. handsome girls grow homelier after marriage, and the homely ones gain in looks by marrying. If I and others whom I have talked to could live our lives over again we would never marry as American shop are. They are incapable of performing the simplest three hold duties.

LIONEL DORRINGTON.

German girl. They are the ones to make a WILL GO TO PRISON FIRST. HEARTY WORDS FOR THE BILL. OUR MARY SAILS FROM US.

Strong in Her Likes and Dislikes. The average American girl is very indepen-dent and will always stand up for freedom and her rights. She loves her country and her people, is very strong in her likes and dislikes, and if she does not like you she does not mind tellif she does not like you she does not mind telling you so. Each has her different character, like every other guit. Some are wild, bold or saucy; others quiet pleasant or industrious, and almost every one take polities. Although she may often shock foreign mammas and daughters by her freely stoken remarks and American ways, she means well at heart and is every ready to do you a kindness.

There is one point in which every American girlagrees, and that is, she would not be anything but an American girl.

An American Girl.

the Continental Hotel, at Twentieth street and Undeniably French in Appearance and Ideas. The average American girl met at the fashionable watering-places of Narragansett Pier and cause she has money, looks down on her English and Scotch cousins of better birth because they A gold double engle is offered for the best de, scription of a typical American girl in 200 words or less. The contest is open to all. Nellie Bly is judge. No contribution is to exceed the limit, and all must be written on one side of the paper only. The increasy il description with the name and address of the contest. All contributions should the close of the contest. All contributions should is addressed "American Girl Contest," The the Assemblymen who have espoused this just measure. Appeals, which savor of threats, are being made to the lawmakers by police justices, bank presidents and others at the instance of Mr. Gerry Social influences are brought to bear upon many of our contemporaries.

A great deal of loobying of a low order is being done. Misrepresentation is indulged in without stint and prejudice appealed to without hesitancy.

Critically Discussed.

Critically Discussed.

The "American girl" "par excellence," Is a lady of fashion and knows how to dance. She is learned in Latin, knows something of directs, and languages foreign can fluently speak. And languages foreign can fluently speak. And languages foreign can fluently speak. And aritist in cooking, her skill is divine; If she sings, she sings well; she does nothing if she sings, she sings well; she does nothing freelating her.

Every wire is being due to the learned at the coince of the contest, All contributions should and daddress of the certer will be published at the french type in the life little, Canadian and Saxon, as are the littlesh, Canadian and Saxon, as are the littlesh and the little strain and the close of the contest," The Saxon, as are the littlesh and the little strain and the little s with girls of other countries, so far exceed them dacity in making the comparison. In manners she is at once doctle and dignified, timid and hold, and withal, the dearest, sweetest and most companionable grid in the whole world. May she never change.

None Can Compare With Her.

In my opinion the true type of an American girl can be given by the mention of a name dear to all Americans and honored and laurelcrowned by our cousins across the sea. A name borne by one who has, by passing through a fire of public criticism, proven the material of which the American girl is made, and the crowned by our who has, by passing through a new borne by one who has, by passing through a new of public criticism, proven the material of which the American girl is made, and the heights she can soar to by invulnerable virtue, hind-fatigable energy and loyal patriotism; namely—Mary Anderson. M. L. Ryas, 1685 Lexington avenue.

Speaking about our American lassies, they are one of those dears, I am sorry to say, that can be found all over. They are considered to be quietly dangerous, for they have a habit of atquietly dangerous, for they have a habit of at-tacking the heart which at once renders its vic-tim perfectly heipless. Their means of subsist-ence vary according to the seasons of the year. In Summet they feed on lee-cream and soda-water, while in Winter you take them to the the-atre, feed them on oysters, &c., after which the naughty things generally ture around and marry the other fellow. Dr. Modan, 245 East Twenty-third street, city, 2

A Modern Maid of Athens. The most important attribute of the typical American girl is not her "pink cheek "nor her "greenback," as two humorous gallants have asserted, but it is the gait of her person, the bloom in her cheek, her wit and vivacity and bloom in her cheek, her wit and vivacity and the poetry of her motion, which have developed her into the modern Maid of Athens. There is nothing more fascinating than this bundle of sweetness on high heels and nothing more classic in low neck. The man who said that there were only two real women in the world—

"one died and the other wasn't born "-lived before the discovery of America, but the may who said "I am all that my mother made me was an American—and one of the greatest—who must have thought the same as I do.

JESSE L. GHERNBAUM.
332 East One Hundred and Nineteenth street.

Extra No. 1 Stock. The one who is ever ready to joinin the frivolities of youth, even at an advanced age, giving her the undoubted appearance of having none of the hauteur of the consequential girl whose delicacy and etiquette forbid these innocent dideicacy and efficient free infocent diversions. Willing to take part in the spirit of the moment, not stopping to consider the propriety of so doing. Ever ready, self-reliant, well informed on general subjects, she interts a pleasing aroma to a dull atmosthere. Her vivacity and generous nature make her a desirable attendant at any gathering. Chooses her company carefully, deuterately. They have a thereigh confidence in their husbands, which is never disturbed by suspicion, and aftogether enspicion, and altogether quarter of a century.

A Graceful Compliment.

ary attainments I should have considered my of a distinctly blonds type appeared at the Naturalization Bureau and made his second application for the papers which would give him a legal claim to citizenship.

Joachim von Shulika, Baron of the German Empire, took his last papers out on the 2d of April. He didn't wait for the 2d of the month thing if all American girl it would be a whole-ame thing if all American girls were the type of her. typical American girl it would be a whole one thing if all American girls were the type of her G. E. S.

DUMB WITNESSES OF FRAUD.

The Market Books New Show Largely Increased Receipts.

Commissioners of Accounts Holahan and Barker had hoped to re-nine the taking of testinony in the market investigation to-morrow, but they find that they will at that time be still unmer-ed in the examination of the Market Bureau books, and it will have to be put off until Morelay.

The Commissioners have made one interesting commarison from the books, which shows that the investigation has had a beneficial effect on the market collections. Ever since the beginning of the investigation the collections, which had steadily decreased, began to increase in amount until now they are Kanana Has Another Female Mayor.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 3.—The election yesterday resulted in another town going under feminine rule, Mrs. W. R. Morgan, wife of the editor of the Chase County Leader, All they are good for is to paint, powder and read fline novels, was the avenue and flirt with fellows on the corner and think of dress. When they get married they can't cook a pot of coffee, I would not have one as a gift. Give me the

Weak Strong Makes the

If you are rin down, or have that tired feeling as a result of overwork or the effect of the changing season you should take that bees of all tonics and blood purifiers, Hood's Sarsaparilla. It purifies and enreches he blood, tones the stomach, rouses the torid liver and kidneys creates an apperite and builds up the system. Thousands who have taken it with benefit, teetify that Hood's Sarsaparilla "makes the weak strong."

"I know that Hood's Sarsaparilla has restored my health and prolonged my dars. I was feeding badly for a long time, my trouble being a general nervous prostration, accompanied with chills and fever. After taking five bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla cred me of blood poison, gave me a noble appetite, overcame headache and dissinces, so that now I am able to work again." LUTERN MASON, able to do my housework. I sm as well new as any one able to do my housework. I am as well new as any one 53 Church st., Lowell, Mass, of my age, 83." Mrs. M. S. THORF, St. Albans, Vt. N. B. He sure to get only Sarsaparilla

100 DOSES ONE DOLLAR

DR. ROBERTSON AND MR. MERRIPIELD TAKE A NOBLE STAND. They Will Protect the Girl They Rescued

quences-Police Capt. Reilly Has Asked Them for an Explanation-Nothing Will Induce Them to Tell the Girl's Where-The pretty seventeen-year-old girl who in lesperate straits tried to end her existence in from the Grave, and Stand the Conse-

Broadway, before dawn last Saturday morning is in kindly care out of town. Proprietor Merrifield, of the Continental Hotel, and Drs. Robertson and Tavis, of 28 Newport must be considered very proud, be- East Twentieth street, who brought her back from the brink of the grave and aided her to of imprisonment which their action laid them > present whereabouts. section 30 of the code says a person who aids or conceals a felon is an accessory to the felony. and section 33 of the code says that a person convicted as an accessory to a felony is punishyears or a fine of not more than $500, or both. Police Capt. Really, of the West Thirtieth street station, is one of the kindest hearted officers in the department, but his duty impelled press an opinion one way or the other, because, him to call on Mr. Merrifield and Dr. Robertson last evening and demand of them an explanation

When an Evening Would reporter saw Dr. Robertson this morning the physician said he did not know whether he was to be arrested or

"I do not care much, either," he said. "My conscience answers me that I have done right in to the law."
You are perfectly satisfied that she is worthy of your most kind consideration?" asked the re-to disgrace.

"Why, if she is arrested it will either drive her to the river or the brothels, and I don't propose to allow that. She is good and innocent now. We have secured a good situation for her, which is open as soon as she is well enough to go to work, and I will never tell where she is," concluded the kindiy-faced, gruff-voiced boniface.

HE RESIGNS HIS TITLE.

THE BARON VON SHULIKA BECOMES PLAIN "MISTER."

Mr. Joachim von Shulika nie Baron von Shulika! It is a common thing for a young woman.

born a citizeness of this glorious Republic, to merge her Americane-s, so to speak, into a foreign title. Miss Smith is only too glad to become Her Grace the Duchess of Bareacres, or Madame the Baroness von Buamenblat.

The reverse of the case is when a young, titled foreigner resigns his right to any handle to his name, except plain United States "Mister," when his proud family knew him as Count or Baron, a rarity that does not happen in a Naturalization Bureau of the Court of Common Pleas, then had the pleasure of turning a blue-joke if he applied for them the day before. No: but on the 2d of April, 1868, just twenty-one years ago he first saw the light of the German Vaterland.

So he commemorated his majority by becoming an American citizen. Jeachim showed a praiseworthy zeal in this, because he couldn't have been more expeditious.

To be naturalized, an alien must make his first application at sometime within his first three years of residence in the country. Then two years later he must make his second application, and must have resided, for a year at least, immediately provious to this second application in the State in which he takes out his papers.

and must have reschied, for a year at least, immediately previous to this second application in the State in which he takes out his papers.

Barou you Shulika arrived on these Renublican shores in 1875, but what month he could not remember. He surned his profession as that rather unusual one for an American citizen, namely, "Gentleman of Leisure."

He said in his printed affidavit:

L. Joachim von Shunka, de declars on oath that it is bona fide my intention to become a citizen of the United States, and to remounce ormer all slegatone and fidely ity many foreign Frince, potentiale, State or soveraging whatever, and particularly to the Emperor of Germany, or when I am a subject, and ronsince my title as Baron you Shuika.

Then in handwriting these words were added whom I am a subject, and reneance my title as Baron von Shalika.

Then in handwriting these words were added by the Baron; "And I further hereby renounce my title as Baron von Shulika."

The witness to the late Baron's integrity and truthfulness was: "Seeffred Lydow, 52 South Washington squar, broker."

Baron, him Mr. Von Shulika, lices at 15 West Twe tristal three, in a house of which Gustave Jenny is the propretor.

The neat Jentonic Phyllis who answered the ring of the bell by as Evenino Wealls reporter said that Mr. Von Shulika went out at 9 o clock, she didn't know where.

Mr. Jenny did not know his lodger had been turned, into an American Sectoriay, and

This accords charmingly with Jeachim's profession of "gentier an of leisure," and it is much better that he should blow in his good money as a swell New Yorker and American citizen than that his big frame should be "grafted into the army of Kaiser Wilhelm, and become a target for shot and shoul. Although he had to renonnee his title of nobility, Mr. Von Shullha can still retain the "particale," the "Von," which marks him of nobile birth.

Congratulations, Citizen Von Shullka?

Lawyer Steckler's Novel Plea. Maria Johnson was tried under the name of Jane Doe, and sentenced in her proper name to six months in the Penitentiary, in the Court of Special Sessions, on Jan. 23. Charles Steckler, who has been retained as her counsel, appealed the case before Judge Gildereleeve, in the Court of General Sessions, to-day, arguing that where the real name of a culprit was known it was the Court's duty to incorporate it in the pleadings. This is the first case of this kind. The Judge reserved his decision.

Brooklyn Judges and Lawyers Insist that Children Should be Protected.

THE EVENING WORLD" INDORSED

There Is No Reason Why the Amendment Proposed Allowing the Review of Proceedings in the Commitment of Children to Institutions Should Not Be Passed-The Present Law Is Outrageous.

Prom the Brookley World of To Day

The effort inaugurated by THE EVENING Wonto to secure an amendment to the present law governing the commitment of children to reformatory institutions, which will give to tempted suicide, say they will take the full term them the same protection that is given to a criminal arrested for crime, is so manifestly just liable to rather than make known her name or and proper that no fair-minded, candid man ought to hesitate for a moment in indursing it. As already published, they have connived at a All the amendment seeks to accomplish is to felony, because section 178 of the penal code allow a review by any court of record, upon says that it is a felony to attempt suicide, and certiorari, on the facts and the law, any such commitment. It has been reserved for only one | son newspaper in New York, together with the managers or agents of certain reformatory institutions affected indirectly by the proposed amendment, to be the sole and only opponents of the bill. A number of Brooklyn lawvers and judges

> Judge Willard Bartlett, of the Supreme Court Judge Willard Bartlett, of the Supreme Court
>
> I consider it hardly becoming in a Judge to > express an opinion on the passage of a law by > the Legislature which enlarges the scope of his > own powers. I am willing, however, to be > quoted in The Woallo as saying this much regarding the law in question. I can see no valid > argument against the change proposed in the > existing law, and I can see a great many good > reasons why the change proposed should be > made.

"You are perfectly satisfied that she is worthy of your most kind consideration?" asked the reporter.

"In every respect I look upon her now as a protege of mine, and will defend her as I would one of my own flesh and blood.

"Capt. Reilly called on me last evening, and I am sure that he heartily indorsed what we did for the girl, although perhaps in his official capacity he could not say so. I am not afraid that he will interfere voluntarily in the matter.

"Did you know that you were violating the law" was asked.

"I did not until I read it in The Evening Would posterday," It would not have made any difference if had known it, though. I would have acted just the same, and I am sure Mr. Merrifield and Dr. Tavis would, too.

"Inever saw so many reporters in my life as I did yesterday," he concluded. "They came here all afternoon and up to mindight, Nearly each one was armed with that clipping from your paper."

"It isobertson is a specialist and a man of wealth and repute in his profession. He is just of that character that he would go to jail rather than windraw his support from the girl now.

Mr. Merrifield, when seen by the reporter, echoed Dr. Robertson's sentiments, and added:

"I know Capt. Reilly. A better hearted man never lived. He will make no arrests in this case, nuless obliged to by outside busy-bodies.

"However, if the public demands my arrest to allow that. She is good and innocent tow. We have secured a good situation for her, which is onen as soon as she is well enough to go to work, and I will rever tell where she is," each other work, and I will rever tell where she is," even the work and I will rever tell where she is," even the mending of countered that it is soon under the law as it now stands, its rovew-her to the river or the brotheles and I don't propose a mendment of a court of the commitment of a court of the court of the court of the commitment of a court of the commitment of a court of the court of the court of a court of the cour something like this: The commitment of a magistrate under such a proceeding shall not be deemed the final judgment of a court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction, but all such commitments shall be reviewable on habeas corpus proceedings, and an appeal may be had from any such order of commitment made by such magistrate in such manner as appeals are now made, from the judgment of police magistrates or courts of special sessions, under section 749 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. George V. Brower was not sufficiently posted on the law to give an expression of opinion, but said;

on the law to give an expression of opinion, but said:

"I will say, however, that in my opinion nobody more needs the protection of the courts than the children.

Horace Graves—I know nothing about the present law except that, as I understand it, police magistrates have exclusive purisiletion in the matter of the commitment of children to reformatory institutions, and their action cannot be reviewed by the higher courts. I think that law ought to be amended. No person, young or old, should be sent to jail or a reformatory institution by any magistrate without the right of appeal to some other migistrate or higher court of competent jurisdiction for relief, or in other words, to have his legal rights judicially inquired into and determined upon.

Anti-Conspiracy Law Mass-Meeting. Arrange Underwood O'Connell, the snave clerk of the at Cooper Union to-night, in aid of the smendment to the Conspiracy Laws, are all complete, on the ground that he has not time to perform the duties of that position.

A Natural Inference.

Hostess-Mrs. Flyer, let me introduce [Mon.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO.

THE GERMANIC CARRIED HER AT 8 THIS MORNING.

With Her Brother and Sister She Left the Victoria Hotel Before 5 O'Clock This Morning-A Little Company of Friends on the Pier Bid Her God-Speed as the Big Vessel Puts Out to Sea.

Miss Mary Anderson sailed at 8 o'clock this norning on the White Star steamer Germanic for England.

It was given out two or three days ago that she was going abroad, and that she had engaged passage on the City of Chester of the Inman were written these names: "Mr. Joseph Anderson, Mrs. Joseph Anderson, sister and maid."

This was, perhaps, a kindly little fiction gotten up by some of Miss Anderson's inventive friends to prevent a throng from coming to bid her good-by. On the passenger list of the Germanic, which is one of the star boats of the White Star line.

The unnamed sister was the charming and successful American actress, Miss Mary Ander-The name of this beautiful daughter of Kentucky is known all over the world. Of course, every one will recognize Mr. Joseph Anderson as her brother, and Mrs. Joseph Anderson as the daughter of Lawrence Barrett. Miss Anderson spent yesterday in the very responsible management of directing the packing of her trunks and bandboxes at the Hotel Vicas they said, they did not sufficiently understand She was up this morning before the morning the subject, there was not one who expressed star. An early carriage with twinkling lights and a sleepy driver stood at the pavement of the himself as opposed to it, and a number were emphatically in favor of it, as the following brief morning.

They arrived at the White Star pier, a stone's throw from Christopher street, at 5 o'clock.

The pier had been open all night for prematurely early passengers. The watchman haif awoke from a morning uap and showed the way to the gangplank. The three voyagers went on board and Miss Anderson retired to her state-board and Miss Anderson retired to her stateroom.

At sun-up cabs began to rattle down to the White Star pier, and personal friends of Miss Anderson went on board the steamer with bouquets and flowers.

Soon the cabin table was smiling with beautiful roses for the departing actress. Not least among them was a great horseahoe, which seemed to wish an ocean of good luck, besides baskets of flowers such as cannot be obtained between here and Liverpool.

The visitors came so quietly that no one could find out who they were, but from that unmistakable look of greatness which they wore it was suspected that they were actors and actresses.

Alout fifteen friends, of whom six were ladies, stood at the pier when at 8 o'clock the Germanic was towed out in the stream.

About fifteen friends, of whom six were ladies, stood at the pier when at 8 o'clock the Germanic was towed out in the stream.

Miss Anderson stood aft on the deck of the Germanic and leaned over the rail to bid her friends good-by. She was in bithe spirits. A light fog hung over the river and no sunshine was visible, except the sunshine in her face. Her cheeks were rosy, and as she was sailing away she looked like a fading picture of health. A gallant longshoreman in a white flannel shirt took off his hat to her. She acknowledged the graceful compliment by waving her hand-kerchief.

Miss Anderson will remain abroad till November, spending the time in general travel and sight-seeing. She may visit the south of France. She expects to return about Dec. 1 in time to appear on the stage on the 9th of that month.

HUNG BY AN ELECTRIC WIRE. The Critical Situation of an Iron Roof Workman at Bridgeport.

PRPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. BRIDGEPORT, Conn., April 3 .- John Bourk is n employee of the Berlin Iron Bridge Company. He was at work in this city on the roof of Warner Brothers' four-story brick corset factory at an hour near lighting-up time. The roof has a steep pitch, and was covered with a sprinkling of snow. Bourk lost his balance and slipped down the Bourk lost his balance and slipped down the steep roof. He clutched at the slippery slating, but his rapid slide towards the edge was not stopped until half his body had passed the caves. He then caught hold of an electric wire which runs along the edge of the roof.

The electricity is supplied by a dynamo in the factory and is used to light the shops. The wire is but partly insulated, and before Bourk could craw back onto the edge of the roof, the electric current was turned on.

Bourk uttered the most piercing screeches. He was unable to let go, and could he have done so he would have dropped about 40 feet to the ground.

ground.

It was several minutes before a ladder could be raised and rescuers could drag him off the wire.

His hands were burned and lacerated, and Bourk was so badly hurt that he had to be carried into the Seaside Institute for Working Girls to be resuscitated. The Plattites and the Union Leaguers will have it out in the Twenty-first Assembly District, at the Republican primary Friday night. Wm E. Leary, the present Chairman of the District Committee, leads the former, while the banner of the League is borne by A. R. Whitney, who says that he is going to win and make the district Republican.

Of course Mr. Whitney is supported by John F. Flummer, while the Hess faction, Elihu Root and Wm. Brookfield are found in the ranks of the Platties. THE POLO GROUNDS PETITION.

Baseball 'Admirers Who Have Not Signed

The Polo Grounds question is still in abey-ance. The Aldermen will not take any action in the matter until Tuesday next. THE EVENING WORLD petitions now before the Board of Aldermen contain 14,003 names, to put it precisely. One of the best and largest lists of names in-Inded in the last batch of petitions was forwarded by Mr. Renn, manager and one of the warded by Mr. Renn, manager and one of the proprietors of the International Hotel. Mr. Renn is a warm friend of Mr. Mutrie, and went to a great deal of trouble to get up the petition. The bombardment of the Aldermen with petitions should be kept up. Mr. Day, it is stated, will not make any arrangements for other grounds, at least until after Tuesday next, Therefore let all admiters of baseball who have not yet signed this blank do so at once, and not only sign it, but circulate among their friends.

THE EVENING WORLD PETITION. THE EVENING WORLD PETITION.

To the Board of Aldermen of New Fork City:

The undersigned, residents of New York and vicinity and admirers of the National game, believing that it is not inconsistent with the majority of private interests involved, and knowing that it is in accordance with the desire and sentiments of the great majority of the public, that the Polo Grounds shall not be rendered unfit for One Hundred and Eleventh street through the grounds.

One Hundred and Eleventh street through the grounds.

Hereby petition your honorable body that no action providing for the grading of said street through the Polo Grounds shall be taken until after Oct. I next, thereby enabling the Polo Grounds to be used by the New York baseball public and its champion nine this season and affording ample time for the securing of permanent grounds for use in future seasons.

We base this petition purely upon public grounds, in the belief that the interests of the National game in the National metropolis merit the consideration and encouragement of the constituted authorities.

Paste on Paper for More Names.

Answers to Correspondents. A. L. B. -Pinochle is the correct spelling.

Joseph Howarth.—President Cleveland approved or allowed to become laws 1,351 pension ills, as against 736 by Arthur, 303 by Hayes and 485 by Grant. M. W. H.—If you give a chattel mortgage on your furniture the holder can foreclose when-ever you fall to make the stipulated payments.

A. C. H.—Watch the advertisements in the daily paper.

G. Mc.—Robert Louis Stevenson has no coppright here on the drama "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde," and you do not need his permission in order to legally give an amateur performance. Ignatius F. L.—You can have the judgmens debtor examined in supplementary proceedings, and if he has money and refuses to pay he may be sent to prison for contempt, but it will probably cost you more than the amount of your judgment.

W. H. C.—You cannot hunt ducks on Long Island until May 1 nor rabbits until Nov. 1. C. C.—Ex-President Grover Cleveland's law office is at 45 William street.

Charles E. Burton.—Make application for Sandy Hook pilot appointments at the Pilot Commissioners' office, 40 Burling slip.

SECURE YOUR

JOHN HALL.

53 WEST 18TH ST., NEW YORK, NEAR 6TH AVE. 18TH ST. L STATION.
U. S. Bunting Flags in regulation fast colors and sizes, mounted on varnished spear-head poles, with galvantes tal holder to attach to window stills or casings, screws and ALL COMPLETE.
Style, "BATTERY, "35-inch flag, 57-inch pole, at 50.0 each, complete.
Style," GARRISON," 48-inch flag, 73-inch pole, at 81,00 each, complete.
Also fast-color Buntings for Descrations, 40 inches wide, at 18c., per yard

Style "GARRISON," 48-inch flag, 73-inch pole, at $1,00 each, complete.

Also fast-color Buntings for Decorations, 40 inches wide, at 15c, per yard.

A 3 OR 4 STORY HOUSE CAN BE ELABORATELY DECORATED FOR $10 TO $300.

CENTENNIAL DECORATIONS

EVERYBODY

Is Talking About the Wonderful Story that The Morning World Is Publishing, Entitled

A VOYAGE TO MARS; Or, The Life and Civilization of Another Planet.

Entirely Unique and Savoring of No Other Literary Production It Has Captured Old and Young Alike.

READ THE FOLLOWING SYNOPSIS AND BEGIN READING THE STORY TO-MORROW MORNING AT A MOST EXCITING PART.

STROPSIS OF PRECEDING CHAPTERS.

A curious cipher manuscript is found under strange circumstances on an island in the Pacific. It is an autobiographical story of a trip to the planet Mars from the sarth. The narrative begins with the construction of a machine or vessel called the "Astronant," the motive power of which is a newly discovered force called apergy. The journey through space is safely accomplished and the traveller lands on Mars. He finds a highly and peculiarly civilized country, but the natives at first assail him. In the first lands on Mars. He finds a highly and peculiarly civilized country, but the natives at first assail him. Such amplies a markable appearance of the him. Ends a surprise of the straveller of Mars, is sent to investigate the romarkable appearance of the him. Ends as afform at the country of Mars, is sent to investigate the romarkable appearance of the Keena, the daughter of Esmo, and square the Country of Mars where he is amounted the traveller when and his wive, on the advice of Esmo, become members of the Order of the Sisr, a powerful Mars in manuscrape and the wive, on the advice of Esmo, become members of the Order of the Sisr, a powerful Mars is resched and the Sovereign, or Campta, receives his quart in the money friendly manuser, to the ill-concealed anger of Endo Zampta. The Prince Sections of the Sisr, a powerful Mars and the finds that the management of the Marstan busehold in no light task. Define a member of the Order of the Sisr, is engaged as superintendent of the estate, and he warms the traveller that his life is in danger from secret enemies. The latter has a second interview with the Prince of Mars. Define appropriate the correspondence of his wives. Two of them, Eunane and Eve, give him some of their letters, which he turne over to Dairlo. He then takes his wives to a public Marstan nursery, where the girls of marriageable age are asset to the correspondence of his wives.

LOOK FOR IT.